Insurance

The yacht is covered by fully comprehensive marine insurance but clients are responsible for their own personal insurance and are strongly recommended to arrange adequate cover for medical expenses, loss of personal effects, third party liability and cancellation etc.

Liability

Sailing is an active sport and can include potential risks to persons and property. Accidents are rare but by making a booking, clients are deemed to accept that they participate at their own risk, and that Andaman Yachting and its servants, agents and employees do not accept any liability whatsoever for any personal injury or for any loss or damage to any personal effects or property howsoever this may be caused.

Non-Availability and Delay

Non-availability or delay due to technical problems and/or bad weather is rare, but these are inherent risks in sailing and delay can occur. Andaman Yachting does not accept any liability for non-availability or delay due to adverse weather or due to events outside its control. If Andaman Yachting should be responsible for any non-availability or delay lasting more than 24 hours, clients will be reimbursed pro-rata for the time lost. However, Andaman Yachting does not accept any liability for any other loss or expense, or for damage of any nature that may be suffered by a client or any other party due to any non-availability or delay howsoever this may be caused.
